

2023-24 NFACR Grant Round

Key information

NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR AUSTRALIA-CHINA
RELATIONS

澳中基金会

The National Foundation for Australia-China Relations' (the Foundation) 2023-24 grants round is now open.

Applications will close on 24 September. Up to AUD$6.5 million is available.

The Foundation, established in 2020, is a national platform that works across business, government and communities to strengthen constructive engagement with China and build links across greater China. Working with others, we provide practical support and expertise, facilitate connections, commission research, and coordinate training and exchange programs.

The Foundation is looking for creative solutions to achieve its strategic objectives of:

- Promoting connections and practical cooperation
- Building understanding and exchange
- Showcasing Australian excellence
- Engaging Australia's diverse communities

Applications may cover fields such as health and ageing, business, arts, culture, community engagement, science, sport, education, climate change, China literacy and promotion of Australia's First Nations cultures.

To be eligible, you must:

- have an Australian Business Number (ABN)
- be a permanent resident or citizen of Australia
- have an account with an Australian financial institution
- be located in Australia or Greater China

Further information on this grant opportunity, including the guidelines and application form, is available at our website <https://www.australiachinafoundation.org.au/> and on GrantConnect at www.grants.gov.au. Our website also lists previous successful grant projects.

Public information sessions will be held online on 29 August (English) and 31 August (Mandarin). Information on how to dial in will be made available on the Foundation website in due course.
