

Strategy 2026 – 2028

Mission

Promote Australia's national interests in relation to China through risk-informed engagement and practical cooperation in support of a stable and constructive relationship, strengthened Australia China capability, and engagement with Chinese Australian communities.

Priority objectives

Support risk-informed engagement and practical cooperation with China in Australia's long-term interests

Strengthen China capability across Australian society

Support inclusive and resilient Chinese-Australian communities

Lines of effort

Convene regular dialogues and exchanges that contribute to an informed, stable and productive relationship with China

Support cooperation in priority areas*

Strengthen trade, industry, investment, institutional and people-to-people partnerships

Foster links with Chinese international students and alumni

Promote the role of the Foundation in Australia and China

Build China literacy across Australian society, including state, territory and local governments; business and industry; educational institutions; arts, and cultural and community groups

Work with partners to deepen and expand Australian pools of expertise and experience in China

Foster informed public discourse on the Australia-China relationship

Provide platforms for constructive conversations about China

Engage Chinese-Australians as valued members of Australian society

Build civic and democratic participation, and trust in and understanding of Australia's systems and institutions, media and foreign policy

Empower Chinese-Australian leaders

Promote recognition of Chinese-Australian contributions

Provide platforms that broaden understanding, inclusion and belonging for our diverse Chinese-Australian communities

Enablers

Advisory Board

Media and communications

Competitive grants program

Events, training, roundtables and seminars

Collaboration with relevant organisations, government agencies and Australia's overseas posts

*These include climate change, decarbonisation, sustainable agriculture, health, ageing, medical technology, education, energy security, tourism, arts and sport

The Foundation's remit covers mainland China, Hong Kong and Taiwan